KOSKOVICH

CUSTOM JEWELLER

Richard & Ann Koskovich with George H.W. Bush

About the Artist / Owners

Richard Koskovich moved to Alaska from Minnesota in 1973, where he soon made the transition to a full-time goldsmith. Wildlife enthusiasts were among his earliest customers. With their encouraging support, he was able to continue and further develop his exceptional talents as a goldsmith.

"The first pieces Richard made were entered in the 1975 Fur Rendezvous Arts and Crafts Competition. They won "First Place" in the Arts division and "Best for Show" overall. The orders from that exhibit got him going and he has kept very busy ever since.

Gump's Show & Exhibit '83 Beverly Hills, California

Safari Club International Show, Exhibit and Award Winner

*Commissioned to make a pin for President George H. W. Bush, Sr. Show & Exhibit

Foundation for North American Wild Sheep Show & Exhibit

International Sportsmen Show & Exhibit

Wildlife Art Collectors Society Show & Exhibit

Koskovich's works have been displayed in several galleries and shows throughout the United States and his pieces are owned by collectors, famous celebrities and wildlife enthusiasts worldwide.

This self-taught artist is known for his precise detail and commitment to quality. He has an obvious gift for design, and is clearly no ordinary goldsmith. His fine craftsmanship will suit the most discriminating purchaser, who is also looking for "something different."

Richard and Ann Koskovich reside in scenic Homer, Alaska. Ann has an extensive background in business management, and has been the chief administrator of their businesses. They also turn a summer sightseeing/fishing charter business in Alaska. Together, Richard & Ann have worked hard to make their business a success, and are proud to present this brochure to you!
